Has the honour to suggest that the marginally noted expenditure now incurred from District Funds is an item properly to be borne by the Inzrai funds for purposes of sanitation during the jatras there. The Inzrai Secretary may kindly be addressed on the subject in connection with his No 3783-91 of 15th April 1905, to which we only lately replied that no amount whatsoever was spent in the District out of Inzrai funds for this purpose. If the Inzrai Department give us this amount for

Conservancy charges on the occasion of the Car festivals at:—

Shirupathi	—	Rs 30
Narasimhara	—	30
Ramanathapur	—	30
Kenchamma Hosakote	—	30
Total		Rs 120/-

Jatra expenses, the District Fund will be in a position to utilise the savings effected here, on other works of urgency, of which there are so many post-poned for want of money.

No. 7231/657

His docket No. 3783-91 dated 15-4-1905, calling for information re the Sanitary arrangements made and the sums spent therefor during the Calendar year 1904, for the places of pilgrimage in this District.

Has the honour to report that only on two important occasions, viz: the jatra of Chikka Tirupati in the Malur Taluk and of Nandi in Chikballapur Taluk, sanitary arrangements are being specially made every year at the cost of Muzrai funds.

2. A sum of Rs 4/- was spent for the purpose during the Chikka Tirupati Jatra - 4 Vaddars at Re 1/- each were employed. No money was spent for the Nandi Jatra as it was last year on account of plague.

3. The Jatras held in other places in this District are not important ones, as they are of short duration. The Amildars make local arrangements for their sanitation
